COMMUNITY VEGETABLE STAND COMING TO REFLECTION PARK

The Cartwright-Mather Health Auxiliary is excited to announce a new community initiative that's all about sharing, supporting, and enjoying the best of what our gardens have to offer. This fall, a 'Give and Take' Community Vegetable Stand will be set up at Reflection Park—ready to welcome garden abundance this season and for many more to come.

The idea is simple but powerful: if you have extra produce from your garden, you can drop it off at the stand. If you're in need of fresh fruit or vegetables—or simply want to enjoy some local garden goodness—you're welcome to take what you need.

This initiative celebrates the spirit of neighbours helping neighbours, while also promoting food security, sustainability, and healthy living. It's a way for our community to reduce waste, share abundance, and make sure everyone has access to fresh produce during the growing season.

Whether you're a gardener with a bumper crop of zucchini or a family looking for a few fresh carrots for supper, the Community Vegetable Stand is here for you. Together, we can make Reflection Park not just a place of beauty, but also a place of sharing and nourishment.

As you harvest this year—or plan for your garden next season—keep the stand in mind. Every small contribution helps make this initiative a success and keeps the community growing together.

FIELDS OF GRATITUDE

As the days grow shorter and the air takes on that unmistakable crispness, our community is once again in the heart of harvest season. Across the fields of Cartwright-Roblin, combines hum late into the night, grain trucks rumble down the gravel roads, and bales dot the countryside like golden reminders of another year's hard work.

Harvest is more than just bringing in the crop—it's the culmination of months of dedication, patience, and resilience. Our local farmers have faced the unpredictability of weather, long hours, and countless challenges, but now comes the season of reward. Every full grain bin, every truckload of canola, wheat, or oats is a testament to that effort.

For those of us who aren't directly on the land, harvest is still something we all share in. It touches every part of our community: the small-town businesses that support our farmers, the families waiting at home while loved ones work long hours, and the neighbours who lend a hand when equipment breaks down or when meals need to be delivered out to the field.

There's something special about harvest in a small town. It reminds us that we're part of a larger story—one built on tradition, perseverance, and gratitude. It's also a time to look forward: as crops come off the field, plans are already being made for next season, with hope guiding the way as always. So as you pass a combine on the road, or see a neighbour working late under the glow of headlights, take a moment to appreciate the dedication behind it all. Harvest is hard work, but it's also a celebration—a celebration of the land we live on, the people who care for it, and the community that pulls together in every season.

Thank you to our farmers. Wishing you a safe, bountiful harvest and a well-earned season of rest ahead.

DID YOU KNOW?

Belgian bowling—also called Rolle Bolle—uses curved balls designed to roll in an arc instead of straight! The goal isn't to knock pins down, but to land your ball closest to a stake or feather target. It's a centuries-old Belgian tradition that's still alive today in small towns across North America.

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL

We're excited to announce that the permanent Belgian Bowling Lanes are now open at Heritage Park! While the project is still underway—with a new fence planned for installation this fall—the lanes are already proving to be a fantastic addition to our community.

They were a highlight of Ponderosa Days this summer, where families, friends, and visitors enjoyed the chance to play together. The annual Ponderosa Belgian Bowling Tournament drew an incredible 49 teams, a number that has grown steadily since organizer Susan Livingstone revived the tradition several years ago.

This project came to life thanks to the support of Cartwright-Roblin Municipality, the Cartwright and Area Foundation, and especially Jamie Dousselaere, whose leadership, planning, and volunteer hours made it possible.

For those eager to give it a try, a set of bowls is available to rent through Cartwright-Roblin Recreation. The new lanes are more than just a place to play—they're a symbol of community spirit, volunteerism, and pride in our shared spaces. With continued support and participation, Belgian Bowling at Heritage Park is set to remain a beloved tradition in Cartwright-Roblin for generations to come.

Photo- Cartwright & Area Foundation board members and organization reps at the grant presentation evening in June at the Golf Club. The Foundation distributed a record $72,800 to the community this year in grants and scholarships, which included $23,000 from the Thomas Sill fund through Endow Manitoba.

FOUNDATION LOOKS FORWARD TO GIVING CHALLENGE

Summer is a quiet time for the Cartwright and Area Foundation board, with the exception of the Ponderosa Parade. Thank you to Tom, Denise, Carolyn and Maggie for working the parade.

The Cartwright and Area Foundation was incorporated in 1981 as an initiative put forward by the local Kinsmen Club, with a volunteer board of seven. All donated funds are in a perpetual endowment fund with The Winnipeg Foundation. The income earned from these investments is granted out annually.

The aim of the Cartwright and Area Foundation is to help strengthen community well-being now, and in the future, while respecting the wishes of donors. This is accomplished by supporting community projects and organizations which are meeting community needs.

Over the past forty-five years, many families have named the local foundation as a place to direct donations in memory of their loved ones. The foundation board appreciates the trust shown by families and our community.

Manitoba community foundation funds have been enhanced with help through the Endow Manitoba Giving Challenge over the past 11 years. This challenge sees the Winnipeg Foundation, and the Manitoba government (since 2017) each contributing funds according to the amount donated during the challenge period. Over the last eight years, local donations in this time hit at least $10,000 and triggered $4000 in extra funding six times. What a tremendous response and result! Over these eight years, the extra funding totals $30,732.

Watch for more information early in November to get in on this year's challenge.

TWINS 2025 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

The 2025 baseball season ended up being another memorable campaign for the Cartwright Twins. This season's roster consisted of 16 players: Finlay Dobbeleare, Connor Drewry, Bryce Enns, Ty Enns, Drew Haight, Kieran Haight, Wade Haight, Greg Hockin, Matt Johnston, Nik Kummer, Wyatt Livingstone, Andrew Lochhead, Cody Milliken, Von Mullin, Justin Odum, and Nick Riglin. Once again playing in the west division of the Border Baseball League, the Twins won the regular season pennant by finishing first place with a 12 - 2 record.

The Twins opened the playoffs by winning a tightly contested best of five series with Clearwater 3-0. The second round was much of the same with the Twins completing a second hard fought sweep over Pilot Mound. In the league finals, the Twins clawed back from a 2-0 series deficit by winning game 3, but ultimately couldn't defend their title as 2024 Border League champions as they lost to a strong Morden Mudhens team 3-1 in the series.

By making the league finals, the Twins qualified for AA Provincials in Elmwood (Winnipeg). After finishing the round robin 2-1 and beating Brandon 1-0 in walk-off fashion in the semi-final, the Twins faced an unfortunately familiar fate by losing to Boissevain 8-7 in the provincial final - marking back to back seasons as provincial finalists.

Following Provincials and the Border League finals, the Twins had one more tournament as their 2024 finish as a provincial finalist led to a wildcard berth at the Senior AA Western Canadian Baseball Championship in Westlock, AB. The Twins once again ended with a 2-1 round robin record, and then beat the Carlyle Cardinals 11-0 in a semi-final matchup. In the finals this time, the tables finally turned with the Cartwright Twins being crowned Western Canadian champs beating the West Winnipeg A's 4-2.

As a team, we would like to take this opportunity to thank our fans and the entire community. No matter where we end up playing, we haven't encountered a senior baseball team with the support that we receive. Our trip to westerns - and our team's continued existence - wouldn't be possible without that support and we're looking forward to seeing everyone at Waldie Field again next season!

SUMMER REC REFLECTIONS

The Cartwright-Roblin Summer Recreation Program brought energy, creativity, and plenty of fun to the community this summer! Children had the chance to climb, jump, and test their balance through Parkour class, while others expressed themselves through movement in Dance Camp. This camp concluded with a well-attended community recital that showcased the hard work and talent of our dancers.

The always-popular Day Camps were filled with variety! Campers tried their hand at cooking lessons, making delicious treats to share, while also enjoying creative themed crafts (you might have noticed their beautiful sidewalk chalk pieces) that let their imaginations run wild. Quiet moments were spent with books and board games, and lively group challenges kept the days active and engaging.

With so many opportunities to learn, play, and connect, the program gave participants a summer full of new skills, friendships, and lasting memories. The success of these activities highlighted the value of recreation in building both confidence and community spirit.

A heartfelt thank-you goes out to the parents for supporting their children's participation and to the dedicated program leaders who brought their energy, creativity, and guidance to every activity. Together, they helped make this summer one to remember.

BUILDING OUR FUTURE, TOGETHER

You chose to live in Cartwright–Roblin because you see the value of small-town life: community, safety, connection, and the chance to make a real difference. Every day, we have the opportunity to shape the future of our community for ourselves, our families, and the next generation.

Cartwright-Roblin Community Development Corporation is supporting the process of creating a Community Investment Co-op—a locally driven way to own, manage, and grow the businesses and services that matter most to our community. This isn't just about writing a cheque. It's about stepping up to help lead, make decisions, and chart the course for what Cartwright–Roblin looks like in 5, 10, or 20 years.

We're looking for fresh ideas and forward-thinking community members who want a hand in building something bigger than themselves. By joining a Steering Committee, you'll play a direct role in:

- Guiding the creation of a Community Investment Co-op
- Shaping how local dollars are invested back into local businesses
- Ensuring that Cartwright–Roblin has the services and opportunities we all want to see here

If you care about keeping our community vibrant and want to roll up your sleeves, we need you at the table. Let's not wait for harder times—let's shape our future today.

An entrepreneur is someone who sees a problem and risks time, money, reputation, or some other asset to deliver a solution for gain.

– MICHAEL HYATT, ENTREPRENEURS WILL SAVE THE WORLD

WHAT MAKES A COMMUNITY THRIVE?

A strong community depends on:

- Local businesses – restaurants, shops, markets, and services
- Essential services – schools, healthcare, childcare, and libraries
- Social & cultural life – festivals, sports, arts, and clubs
- Economic support – jobs, co-ops, and programs for entrepreneurs
- Quality of life – safe streets, parks, housing, and green spaces

When these pieces come together, the community grows stronger, healthier, and more vibrant for everyone.

are you ready to get involved in moving this forward?

Your passion for the community, skills and experience might be just what it takes to make it happen!

Please contact April Archambault-Community Development Officer to get your name added to the list.

 cdo@cartwrightroblin.ca

We build tomorrow by acting today.

THE TIME IS NOW

@ co-operatives first

What is a steering committee, and what does it do?

When starting a co-op, one of the first things you should do is form a steering committee. A steering committee is the group of people that do the work of forming a co-op. For example, a steering committee outlines how decisions are made. Often it completes and submits government forms. And some key steering committee activities include figuring out how to finance the business, finding members, and much more. Sometimes a steering committee does the legwork on behalf of a larger group of people, but more often this group represents the core of the co-op.

What a Steering Committee does

Here is a list of activities often completed by a steering committee:

- Get organized
- Determine the co-op's purpose
- Assign tasks
- Gather broader support (if needed)
- Follow an action plan towards incorporating and launching the business.

Of course, there are many ways of accomplishing the same objectives. So, treat the above as a guide, not a comprehensive list.

Because this group organizes itself and the co-op, a steering committee often outlines the governance of the new organization. So, a steering committee is also like a board of directors. In fact, this committee often becomes the first board of directors once the co-op is incorporated – at least until the first AGM when the members elect a new board. “ A Community Investment Co-op is a way for local people to pitch in, pool resources, and take an active role in supporting the businesses and services our town depends on. Members don't just invest—they get a voice in how the co-op is run, helping make decisions that keep jobs, profits, and opportunities right here at home. It's a hands-on way for residents to shape the future of Cartwright–Roblin and make sure our community thrives.
